Fangda Partners announced the promotion of 13 new partners

Fangda Partners today announced the promotion of 13 new partners. Their expertise covers a broad range of practice areas, including dispute resolution, corporate/M&A, and compliance & government enforcement.

Michael Han, Chairman of the management committee, welcomed the new partners, saying, "I would like to congratulate all our new partners on behalf of our firm. As Fangda continues its commitment to be people-oriented and expertise-focused, our new partners embody excellent legal skills, strong business acumen and perseverance, especially during these challenging times. It is an honor to welcome such outstanding people into Fangda's partnership. They will be part of Fangda's relentless drive to deliver excellent services to our clients, helping our clients succeed in their businesses in the years ahead, working in close collaboration with all our people to provide an integrated, seamless service."

Commenting on the promotion of the new partners, Gao Yang, managing partner, adds, "We congratulate all our new partners for their successful careers to date. Their promotion reflects our firm's ambition and continuation to invest, retain and motivate leading individuals and underlines our growing pool of talent that provides a strong foundation for the future. We are confident that with our continued growth and the expansion of our partnership to include such talented individuals, we will achieve long-term success."
