PRACTICE AREA

MR. LEHMKUHLER IS A PARTNER IN FANGDA'S HONG KONG OFFICE. HIS PRACTICE FOCUSES ON M&A AND PRIVATE EQUITY TRANSACTIONS.

Education

- University of Virginia, J.D., 1995, Order of the Coif
- University of Virginia, B.A., 1986, Echols Scholar, Rodman Scholar

Professional Qualification

- Admitted to practice in Hong Kong SAR
- Admitted to practice in New York

Mr. Lehmkuhler has practiced in Asia for over two decades, specializing in M&A and private equity transactions with a particular focus on technology, financial services, energy, healthcare, life sciences and infrastructure. He has deep experience across a broad range of transactions, including private equity portfolio investments and exits, leveraged buyouts, tender offers, privatizations, joint ventures and strategic alliances, as well as private equity fund formation.

Mr. Lehmkuhler was formerly a partner at Davis Polk and, more recently, a partner at Orrick in Hong Kong. Over the course of his career, he has represented a broad array of clients on cross-border deals, including large, complex M&A and private equity transactions for leading Chinese corporate clients such as ICBC, CNOOC, Kuok Group, China Resources and Shanda, private equity firms such as CITIC Capital, and global financial institutions such as Morgan Stanley, Citigroup and Credit Suisse.

Mr. Lehmkuhler is admitted to practice in New York and Hong Kong. He received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Virginia, where he was an Echols Scholar, an editor of the Virginia Law Review, and a member of the Order of the Coif academic honor society. Over the course of his career, he has been consistently recognized as a leading practitioner by prestigious legal publications such as Chambers Asia:

“...‘a high sense of integrity, creative and easy to work with, and provides advice that’s really actionable,’ report impressed clients.”

“...‘among the smartest lawyers I have ever worked with,’ comments one interviewee...especially well regarded for his experience representing Asia-focused private equity funds making investments into Chinese market.”

“...very effective in head-to-head negotiations with other firms and principals, and finds very creative solutions to the difficult aspects of deals.”

“...held in high esteem by market sources... ‘commercial and hands-on when it comes to managing transactions’.”

“... a fine balance between Wall Street and Asia... client-friendly and very effective.”

“...‘a very detail-oriented and focused lawyer’... admired for his experience in cross-border M&A.”
