PRACTICE AREAS

MS. REN SPECIALIZES IN TRUSTS, ESTATE PLANNING, SUCCESSION AND FAMILY GOVERNANCE. SHE ADVISES ON ULTRA-HIGH-NET-WORTH INDIVIDUALS AND THEIR FAMILIES, AS WELL AS THE TRUSTEES, PRIVATE BANKS AND FAMILY OFFICES SUPPORTING THEM.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS AND CASES

Jane has been in private practice for more than 18 years and is a trusted advisor to many ultra-high-net-worth individuals (domestic and international) and their families, supporting and guiding them in respect of:

- Cross-border estate planning
- Setting-up and administration of private trusts (onshore and offshore)
- Nuptial agreement and asset protection and divorce
- Family governance advisory (design, document and implement family governance structures)
- Cross-border inheritance and estate litigation
- Philanthropic giving (charitable trust and foundation)
- Setting up, running or exiting of private business ventures

Jane is well recognized for advising clients in relation to complex cross-border estate planning. Chambers Great China Region 2023 recognizes her as Band 1 in Private Client/Wealth Management and admires her as "a strong track record and is an increasingly prominent lawyer in handling cross-border family wealth planning, trust and inheritance matters on behalf of individuals".

Meanwhile Jane acts as outside legal counsel for a dozen of trust companies, private banks and single family offices.

Before focusing on private client services, Jane has many years' experience in addressing various legal issues for domestic and multinational corporations on complex general corporate advisory, domestic and cross-border mergers & acquisitions, international and domestic business transactions, employment law, joint ventures and commercial dispute resolution.
