PRACTICE AREAS

MS. SHI'S PRACTICE FOCUSES ON DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INCLUDING INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION AND LITIGATION. MS. SHI ALSO SERVES AS VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE ICC COURT OF ARBITRATION AND CO-CHAIR OF THE IBA ASIA PACIFIC ARBITRATION GROUP.

Recognized by Chambers & Partners as “an icon of arbitration”, Ms. Shi has acted in more than 100 cases, representing many multinational companies and large domestic enterprises in a wide range of disputes, including disputes arising from equity acquisitions, oil and gas projects, hotel management, aircraft leasing and construction. Ms. Shi represents clients in litigation before the Chinese courts and in arbitration before the ICC, SIAC, HKIAC, CIETAC and ad hoc arbitrations under the UNCITRAL rules.

Ms. Shi has also participated as an arbitrator in over 50 cases. Moreover, being an experienced legal practitioner, she has also provided Chinese legal opinions and testified as an expert in a number of China-related overseas court cases and arbitrations, including court proceedings in Hong Kong and Canada as well as arbitration conducted before HKIAC and an ad hoc tribunal in London.

Before joining Fangda Partners in 2005, Ms. Shi practiced with an international law firm for six years in Beijing and New York City, focusing on dispute resolution. Her previous experience also includes three years as legal counsel at CIETAC in Beijing. Ms. Shi is qualified in China and the State of New York.

Who's Who Legal says: “Helen Shi is an acclaimed lawyer, recommended for her strong experience as both counsel and arbitrator in international commercial disputes.”—— Who's Who Legal, 2020

Chambers & Partners remarks: “Helen is widely considered as one of the leading practitioners in the arbitration arena.” She is especially well known for handling SIAC and HKIAC cases and is regularly instructed by entities from the energy, media and investment sectors. She receives praise from many sources, one of whom remarked: “She is a client-oriented person and we have had good experience working with her. In terms of professional knowledge and ability to handle our needs, she is superb.”—— Chambers Asia-Pacific, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS AND CASES

International Arbitration

- Represented a Canada-listed UK oil and gas company in an over RMB 3 billion dispute with a Chinese state-owned company arising from an offshore natural gas project in Chinese territorial waters with two parallel arbitration proceedings: an ad hoc arbitration seated in Singapore under the UNCITRAL rules and a CIETAC arbitration
