

JOY WONG

Counsel

Fangda Partners

+852 3976-8841

joy.wong@fangdalaw.com

PRACTICE AREAS

MS. WONG SPECIALIZES IN ANTITRUST AND COMPETITION LAW IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND IN HONG KONG. HER PRACTICE AREAS INCLUDE ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE, INVESTIGATIONS, AND MERGER CONTROL.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS AND CASES

PRC merger control

Ms. Wong's key work in merger control includes advising:

- Goldman Sachs on investment in the internet and real estate sectors
- Blackstone on investment in the education and real estate sectors
- CBC, Mubadala, GS Group and IMM on their investment in global cosmetics business Hugel Sequoia and Envision on their establishment of an investment joint venture
- Brose on its acquisition of equity interests in auto parts manufacturer SITECH
- Siemens AG and Macquarie on their establishment of a joint venture active in the energy sector
- WABCO on the PRC merger filing process in ZF Friedrichshafen AG's of WABCO's businesses, which resulted in conditional clearance in China
- Boeing on the PRC merger filing for its proposed acquisition of Embraer

Multi-jurisdictional merger assessment and filings

Ms. Wong's key work in merger control includes advising:

- TCL Technology Group on merger filings in multiple jurisdictions in relation to its acquisition of Samsung's LCD panels manufacturing subsidiaries

- TCL Technology Group merger filings in multiple jurisdictions in relation to its acquisition of Moka International
- Ant Group on the multi-jurisdictional merger filing assessment in a proposed investment

Hong Kong merger control

Ms. Wong's key work in merger control includes advising:

- Hutchison Telecoms on merger control in Hong Kong for its sale of Hutchison Global Communications to private equity firms
- New World Group on merger control in Hong Kong for its sale of New World Telecoms to Hong Kong Broadband

Chinese investigations and compliance matters

Ms. Wong's key antitrust investigation and compliance matters include advising:

- A major technology company on a series of failure-to-notify investigations initiated by China's State Administration of Market Regulation
- A leading international automobile manufacturer in an antitrust investigation relating to vertical restraints initiated by the Chinese State Administration of Market Regulation
- A leading international automobile manufacturer in an antitrust investigation relating to resale price maintenance initiated by the Jiangsu Administration of Market Regulation
- A multinational technology company in an internal investigation relating to abuse of dominance

Hong Kong investigations and compliance matters

Ms. Wong's key antitrust investigation and compliance matters include advising:

- An online platform in an antitrust investigation initiated by the Hong Kong Competition Commission
- The complainant in a complaint to the Hong Kong Competition Commission against a technology company for abuse of market power
- A leading oil and petrol business on its ongoing compliance matters

OTHER INFORMATION

Education

- University of Oxford, MA
- BPP Law School (UK), Graduate Diploma in Laws
- City University of Hong Kong, PCLL

Professional Qualification

- Admitted as a solicitor in Hong Kong (2014)

Work Language

- English
- Cantonese
- Mandarin

Professional Background

Ms. Wong joined Fangda Partners in 2019. Before joining Fangda, she worked in the antitrust department of a leading international law firm and as in-house counsel at Alibaba.